"DRYS" HOLD BIG MASS MEETING

"If all the people in Ogdien who have already announced that they are on the 'dry' side vote as they talk on June 27, Ogdien is surely going 'dry,'" said John V. Bluth, secretary of the "dry" committee, as he made a report of the "drys" canvass at the big tabernacle meeting last night.

We send our missionaries to 'dry' states to invite men to Zion, and they will tell us to go home and convert Zion, for we have saloons and all their curses and they have not."

Frederick Vilning Fisher, vice-chairman of the city committee, presided. On the platform sat the members of the men's and women's central "dry" committees, leading pastors and churchmen. Postmaster Shurtliff, John Watson, H. L. Griffin and other prominent business men. Prayer was offered by President C. F. Middleton. The tabernacle choir led the singing with fine effect.

Mrs. Shepherd Speaks.
"I came to Ogdien tonight bringing my umbrella, thinking Ogdien was 'wet,' but I feel now in the light of this audience that I am wrong and that Ogdien will be 'dry,'" said Mrs. L. L. Shepherd, as she rose amid applause to give the first speech.

"The saloon is unfair," she said as she continued: "It is unfair to the city. It buys its right to sell with better license money, and in return it furnishes the city with crime, police expenses and disgrace. It is unfair to the home, for it is the worst enemy the home has. It is unfair to the church, for that exists to save men—the saloon, if successful, must ruin them."

"It is unfair to the business man. It gets the laboring man's check before the merchant has a chance. It keeps open after legitimate business closes, the more trade a man gives the saloon, the less he gives to the grocer and merchant; the more trade he has for the wages of the saloon, the less he cares for any other."

"It is unfair to the laborer himself. It seeks his money and gives only ruin in return."

"Men say that dry towns are dead towns, but the four towns making the biggest gain in the last ten years—Oklahoma City, Birmingham, Ala., and Pasadena, Cal.—are all dry towns. Let Ogdien go dry and in five years she will far outstrip herself."

Bishop Iverson's Views.
"I have the utmost respect for the man who hesitates to come out for the 'dry' side for high moral reasons, but I despise the business man who is 'wet' because he is afraid prohibition will hurt his business. The man who puts sordid greed first in his life is not a Christian," said Bishop Iverson of Salt Lake as he was introduced.

"Men tell us if we do not have saloons we will have 'blind pigs.' Well, if we do, it will be because we will have 'blind pigs.' But blind pigs at their worst have no attraction for the boys without the liquor appetite, but choice, beautiful saloons have, and with them in our cities, none of our boys are safe."

"If prohibition will regulate, prohibition will prohibit."

Referring to the signs on the billboards of Ogdien, quoting President Eliot of Harvard as favoring the saloon, Bishop Iverson said: "Instead of the great president saying that, he urges every man never touch liquor," and read from his writings. He then showed how the banks of Ogdien ought to oppose saloons, as facts show that in one of the largest banks of this city, out of one hundred and fifty checks which came in on a Monday 90 per cent had been cashed by saloons.

With the singing of "America," the meeting adjourned for one week.

TRUTH CROPS OUT

Why Pile Sufferers So Often Fail To Get Relief.

Science is getting to the bottom of everything, including the cause and cure of piles. The brightest doctors now admit that piles are caused internally and can be cured only by internal treatment. Dr. J. S. Leonard, some time ago perfected a remedy in tablet form—Hem-Roid, which cures the cause of piles, and therefore cures them permanently. It is sold by Bacon's Pharmacy, Ogdien, Utah, under money-back guarantee. $1 for 24 days' treatment. Dr. Leonard's Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.

WEBSTER BATTLES WITH HOODLUMS

That it pays to know something about "the gentlemanly art of self-defense" in times of peace, as well as in times of battle, was demonstrated last night by young Danny Webster, the diminutive pugilist, who is booked to meet Harry Reardon over the twenty-round route in Ogdien Tuesday night, June 12.

Shortly after the program at the Glenwood saucer track had commenced last night, Reardon and Webster were escorted to the band stand and introduced by Announcer Harold Stokor. The little fighters were cheered long and vociferously. Soon after his introduction to the bike fans Webster left the park, accompanied by his girl friend.

The evening being pleasant and Danny apparently desiring a little additional exercise, the young boxer and his companion decided to "hike" into the city. The little couple had only walked about two blocks from the saucer track when in the deep shadow of some low branches, a crowd of hoodlums was encountered.

According to persons who were passing on the other side of the street at the time, one of the crowd made an insulting remark to Webster's little girl and the small prize fighter immediately took it upon himself to give battle to the gang of "roughnecks."

For about a minute there was a general mixup in which Webster was said to have handed out right and left jabs in rapid succession, much to the confusion and disfigurement of the "Indians" who bumped into him. After the smoke of battle had cleared away Webster, it is reported, had about three cracked noses and three pairs of bum eyes to his credit, to say nothing of the little lady who proudly took his arm and marched toward home to the strains of "Stop, stop, stop (bang), don't you dare to stop; come over and love me some more," whistled by the small globe artist.

M. W. OF A. HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Memorial services for deceased members of the order were conducted by Utah camp No. 3990, Modern Woodmen of America, yesterday. Exercises consisting of musical numbers, addresses and the memorial ritual of the order, were held at the Eagle hall in the afternoon, after which the members of the camp marched to the City cemetery, where the graves of departed Woodmen were strewn with flowers.

MAJ. LITTLEFIELD PASSES FORWARD

Major Edwin A. Littlefield, a veteran newspaper man and writer, has passed to his reward. The Grim Reaper called "thirty" for him at his home, 2528 Madison avenue, yesterday morning shortly before 8 o'clock, and he dropped peacefully to sleep. For several days his attending physicians had given up all hope of his recovery.

During the past few years Major Littlefield has been in poor health, but he bore his sufferings with patience and fortitude. His condition grew serious a few weeks ago, and he rapidly grew worse until the end came yesterday morning.

He was born at East Greenwich, Rhode Island, March 5, 1837. In 1864 he came out to Austin, Nevada, where he started a newspaper. He was the founder of the Journal of Reno, Nevada. Remaining in Nevada for three years he went to California and later to Oregon and the northwest, returning to Ogdien in 1881, where he started the "Ogdien Pilot." In February, 1883, he was appointed postmaster at Ogdien by President Chester A. Arthur, which position he held for four years. Although his newspaper career was interrupted for a short time, Major Littlefield continued in the work, his last labors being with the Utah State Journal before that paper consolidated a few years ago with the Morning Examiner.

In 1892 Major Littlefield was elected president of the Utah Press association.

At Virginia City, Nev., February 25, 1878, he was married to Miss Florence Leonard of Boston, Mass., the ceremony being performed by Bishop Whitaker, at that time head of the Nevada diocese of the Episcopal church. He is survived by his widow and six children: Mrs. W. G. Isaacs of Tucson, Ariz.; C. E. Littlefield, Mrs. W. A. Turner and Theron Littlefield of Ogdien; J. C. Littlefield of Washington, D. C.; and E. A. Littlefield, Jr., of Tucson, Ariz. A brother, Lew Littlefield of Philadelphia, and a sister, Mrs. Clarence Porter of San Francisco, also survive him.

Major Littlefield was a member of Ogdien lodge 719 B. P. O. E., the Woodmen of the World and the Sons of the Revolution.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at the family residence.

POLICE HOLD NEGRO SUSPECTS

The police have arrested two colored men, J. L. Thomas and Frank Williams, who are being held as suspects in the robbery of the Assembly restaurant on Twenty-fifth street, last Thursday. So far the officers have been unable to secure convincing evidence of their guilt, and as a result the men may be arraigned on a vagrancy charge instead of robbery.

The restaurant is conducted by Japs, who have sleeping quarters in a small apartment beneath the first floor at the front of the building. Access to this apartment is gained through a small trap door and by a short staircase. Sometime on Thursday the robbers entered this apartment and escaped with about $100 which was secreted in the bed clothing. Nobody was seen to enter the sleeping apartment under the floor and the fact that access to the room can be gained by no other means than through the trap door makes the case a most puzzling one.

Dysentery is America's curse. Burdock's and Pitzer's cures dysentery every time. It drives out impurities, tones the stomach, restores perfect digestion, normal weight, and good health.

CHURCH AGLOW WITH CARNATIONS

Pentecostal services in the First Presbyterian church yesterday were almost entirely given to musical selections. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Snyder of Salt Lake City, Misses Corn and Bartlett, Mrs. C. H. Stevens and Mr. Saunders. Mr. Horace S. Ensign of Salt Lake was present at each service and rendered solos. A quartette, composed of Miss Corn, Miss Stevens, Mr. Saunders and Mr. Ensign, and a quintette composed of Miss Corn, Miss Conroy, Mrs. Stevens, Mr. Saunders and Mr. Ensign, rendered numbers of exceptional merit. Miss Biddle was accompanist for these selections.

Mr. C. V. Schetter of Salt Lake gave three cello solos very pleasingly and Miss Beatrice Hamill and Miss Edna Hamill and Mr. Schetter gave two instrumental trios. Miss Beatrice Hamill and Miss Edna Hamill also gave two duets.

The decorations were most elaborate, over one thousand carnations being used in transforming the rostrum into a beautiful display of color, to which was added roses, syringa and peonies. The flowers gave the church a beauty never before equalled.

The themes of the sermons were upon the place, power and need of the holy spirit in our lives today. The personality and functions of the holy spirit were dwelt upon especially and the impression given that the one great need of today is for a more complete realization of his strengthening and reviving work.

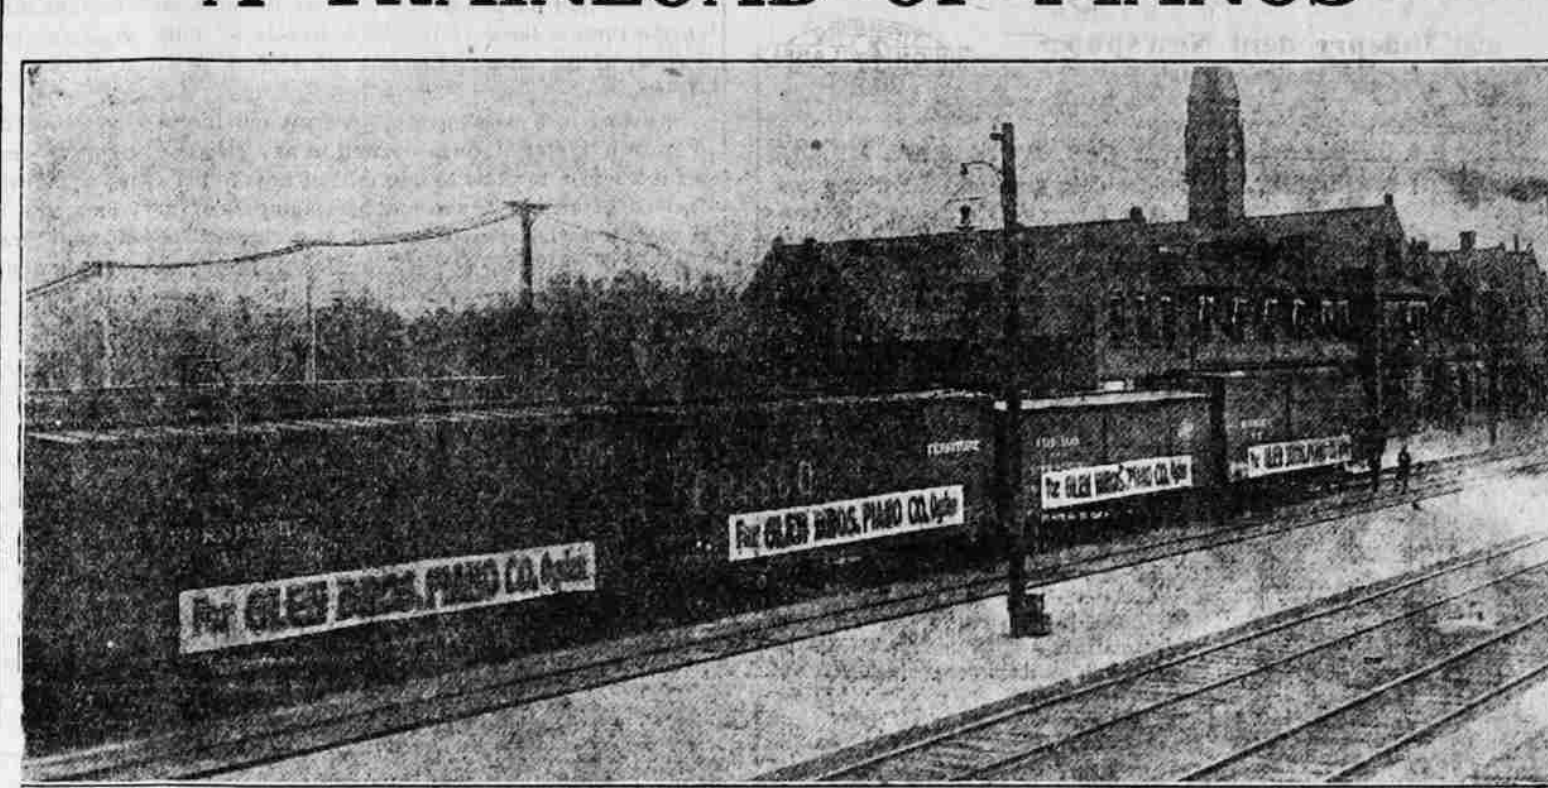

The services were marked by a spirit and tone of real worship and were greatly enjoyed by a great many.

SALT LAKE THIEF CAPTURED HERE

Turning against the man who had befriended him, Frank Nolan, aged 17 years, is confined in the local jail charged with stealing a gold watch and $30 in cash from R. Peterson of Salt Lake. The robbery was committed in Salt Lake last Friday and Nolan was apprehended here last evening.

A TRAINLOAD OF PIANOS

The largest shipment of pianos ever received by any one firm in Utah has just been delivered to Glen Bros. Piano Co. of Ogdien. This fact is of greater significance than the average person will appreciate at first thought. If you will just reflect what the importance of four car loads of high-grade pianos in one shipment signifies, you will see that Ogdien has a piano house second to none between Omaha and San Francisco. The above photograph was taken May 24th, 1911.

on the Ogdien Union Depot passenger tracks and stands as evidence of the unlimited confidence Glen Bros. have in Ogdien and its tributary territory. In addition to the above four cars we have a complete line of musical merchandise and small instruments for our new store on Hudson avenue.

The above shipment is from the World Famed Steger and Sons factory and is composed of one car Steger Grand and Upright pianos, including several exclusive art styles. One car of Player Pianos, one car of Glen Bros. Pianos, made exclusively for our firm by Steger and Sons and one car of Singer Pianos. Our Player Piano department will be strictly up-to-date, with every possible improvement in both player mechanism and convenience to customers.

The rapid growth of our business has made larger and more commodious quarters necessary and we feel that our new store will be fully capable of accommodating us and at the same time inspire the people of Ogdien and vicinity with confidence in their home piano industry. With the celebrated Chickering and Sons Piano at the head of our list of standard pianos the Steger and Sons and others of equal high standing it is no longer necessary to go abroad to select the world's best makes of pianos. We will be pleased to have all lovers of music pay our store a visit of inspection.—Glen Bros. Piano Co., Hudson Ave., Ogdien.

Nolan was believed to be in Ogdien and to keep on the lookout for him. Yesterday Peterson also came up from Salt Lake and last evening he encountered Nolan, who was walking along Washington avenue with a young lady. The Salt Lake man took charge of his erstwhile friend, turning him over to the desk sergeant at police headquarters. Nolan was still in possession of the gold watch and $8 of the original $30.

He begged for a chance to make good Peterson's loss, but the latter has not yet fully determined just what he will do in the matter. It will be necessary to take Nolan back to Salt Lake for prosecution.

Nolan, who is 17 years of age, is considered well advanced in crime for a lad of his age, and is well known to the police of Salt Lake and Ogdien.

DEPOT EMPLOYEES IN GRAY UNIFORMS

The day force of passenger directors at the Union depot appeared in their new gray uniforms for the first time yesterday. The change from blue to gray comes as the result of a recent order from the officials of the Harriman lines, and the new order of things in depot uniforms is effective throughout the system.

Those who appeared in the new uniform of cadet gray yesterday were Depot Master John Shields, Director Harry Hill and Director Arthur Matthews. The night force, Assistant Depot Master Sam Fowler, Director A. T. Plinders and Officer Joseph McIntyre, will don the new regalia next Sunday.

These new uniforms also bear service stripes and stars. On the sleeves will appear a stripe for each five years of service for the first twenty years, after which a star will be added for each additional year. The present time Depot Master Shields wears four stripes and one star, while Assistant Fowler's coat will bear four stripes.

Good News For Catarrh Sufferers

So many hundreds of catarrh victims who have taken the HYOMEI treatment, have written thanking us for publishing our method of taking the HYOMEI vapor treatment in connection with the inhaler that we gladly publish it again.

The vapor treatment is especially recommended in stubborn cases of chronic catarrh of long standing, but remember that the inhaler should be used daily as usual.

This treatment only takes five minutes time before going to bed. Pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises.

You will be surprised at the result of this treatment; it makes the head feel fine and clear; you will sleep better, and that stuffed up feeling will gradually disappear.

This method will break up the worst cold in the head in one night. A bottle of HYOMEI cost 50 cents at BADCON PHARMACY, who guarantee it. Complete outfit, which includes the little pocket inhaler, costs $1.00.

No stomach dosing; just breathe HYOMEI and cure catarrh and all discharges of the breathing organs. Free trial bottle by addressing Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

FIND DEAD BODY OF WM. DUNCAN

Word was received by Sheriff E. E. Harrison last evening that William Duncan, an old resident of this city, had been found dead near Avon, a small village in Cache county. It is thought that the aged man came to his death as a result of starvation and exposure, and there were indications that death had resulted at least a week previous to the finding of the body.

to the county jail. Three weeks ago he left the county jail and started north. Nothing was heard of him by the county authorities here until they were informed of his death yesterday.

Coming to Ogdien when the city was scarcely a village, Mr. Duncan had spent the greater portion of his life here. He is believed to have been 58 years of age. For many years he was employed as a lineman by the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company. There are a number of relatives residing here. Arrangements are being made to have the body brought back for burial here.

PROF. SMITH WILL ATTEND REUNION

Twenty-five years ago on the 7th of this month Prof. J. A. Smith, the veteran educator of this city, graduated a class from one of the best high schools in the state of Nebraska. The class is now scattered from Chicago on the east to Boise, Ida., on the west and from New Mexico on the south to the Canadian line on the north, but on next Wednesday the members are to meet for a reunion at Fredonia, Kan.

Two years ago Prof. Smith received a "chain letter" from the class and a few days ago he received a cordial invitation to meet with the class at Fredonia on next Wednesday. In the invitation the writer said "We want you to see Sunny Kansas and we want to tell you of some of the lessons you gave us and which were not in the books."

The professor left Saturday night over the D. & R. G. for Fredonia and in the meantime Mrs. Moore will superintend the work at the Smithsonian Business college in this city.

WOODMEN DEFEAT NORTH OGDEN

Saturday afternoon the Woodmen of the World ball team out one over the crack North Ogdien team of the county league, the score being 7 to 4. The Woodmen claim to have the best amateur team in the state.

By outbidding their opponents the Woodmen took a lead in the first inning of yesterday's game and with the exception of one inning, when North Ogdien scored three runs in the fourth, were in front all the way. The hits were 11 for the Woodmen and 8 for North Ogdien. Allen, for the fraternal team, had 8 strikeouts, Chadwick 6.

The lineup:
North Ogdien—W. O. W. H. J. Randall, 2b.; Muller, G. Randall, 1b.; Ford, 3b.; Butler, 4b.; Huntley, Brown, 5b.; McQuade, Chadwick, p.; Allen, c.; Shaw, 2b.; Jones, 3b.; Kaufman, 4b.

IRRIGATION DITCH CAUSE OF A ROW

Mrs. Mary Saville had an altercation with George Stephens, Saturday over an irrigating ditch, in which Mrs. Saville used a hat pin to pretty good advantage and Mr. Stephens slapped the woman in the face. The trouble occurred at 3680 Adams avenue, where Mrs. Saville owns a small piece of farm land. Stephens was arrested, the woman complaining of an assault.

The trouble arose over the digging of an irrigating ditch across some property owned by Mrs. Saville near Adams and Thirty-sixth street. Mr. Stephens is not a young man by any means and claims that he merely defended himself against a very insistent woman armed with a batpin. Mrs. Saville admits that she jabbed the man with a batpin, but also regrets that the batpin wasn't longer.

Mrs. Saville owns about an acre and a half of land on which she grows garden truck. The property of Mr. Stephens is adjoining and he claims that he has a water right which allows him to maintain the ditch across Mrs. Saville's property. Mrs. Saville caused the ditch to be filled and it was reopened by Mr. Stephens.

On Friday Mrs. Saville claims that she went out to her farm to pay off some who had been working for her. Again she ordered the ditch filled and this brought on the altercation. The woman asserts that Mr. Stephens struck her in the face and afterwards knocked her down twice. In reaching up to adjust her hat her hand came in contact with a hatpin.

Mr. Stephens is a man well along in years and insists that he only defended himself when attacked by Mrs. Saville. He was much surprised when going with a warrant charging him with assault and battery and believed that if there is to be any legal action over the matter he should be the plaintiff in view of jobs which he received from the hatpin.

THEATRE

A local attorney, who apparently was somewhat skeptical as to the genuineness of hypnotism, furnished considerable amusement for the large audience at the Ogdien theater last evening by taking issue with Griffith, the hypnotic operator who closed his week's engagement with the Sunday evening performance.

Griffith, ordinarily of genial disposition and ready to accommodate his friends in any way possible, became somewhat "peevish" at the remarks and manner of the lawyer and it is just barely possible that the man on the boxoffice side of the footlights received the worst of the argument, judging from the attitude of the audience.

The hypnotic operator put a large class of subjects through some very amusing and interesting tests, bringing his third Ogdien engagement to a successful close.

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD"

Another fair-sized audience, in fact a very goodly number, considering the many attractions in the city, witnessed the Sunday evening performance of "The Old Homestead" at the Ogdien theater. The popular old piece was produced by a most capable company and the engagement gave entire satisfaction.

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair Is First Sign of Age. Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur remedies these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, BADCON PHARMACY, 2121 Wash.
